This program is the definitive source for practical strategies to reduce your bank's risk of loss from fraud and cyber-crime. Don't miss this unparalleled opportunity to learn how to minimize fraud loss exposure and ensure that your bank is prepared to react immediately to a worst-case scenario.

This conference is presented by three accomplished experts in the field of cyber fraud. Cybersecurity professional Alex Hernandez will provide current cyber risk information and loss avoidance strategies. Attorney John Friedemann and Insurance Broker Joe Scully will co-present a real and practical discussion of what to do in the immediate aftermath of fraud to reduce your loss experience. You will also receive advice about steps you can take now to reduce the likelihood of cyber fraud. This program will be practical, informative, and lively. You will also receive an emergency loss response binder for your bank.

JOHN FRIEDEMANN

John F. Friedemann is the managing partner of Friedemann Goldberg LLP. He has represented banks for 33 years in both litigation and transactions, and has extensive expertise in cyber fraud.

JOE SCULLY

Joe is the President of Financial Guaranty Insurance Brokers, Inc. (FGIB), an insurance brokerage firm that specializes in insuring financial institutions and other financial companies.

ALEX HERNANDEZ

Alex Hernandez is the VP of Customer Solutions at DefenseStorm and brings more than 20 years of experience in providing security solutions to some of the largest companies in the world.
